

"ANTI-SEMITISM" SMEAR

inence was registered in no uncertain terms in the material available in the Library of Congress.

And furthermore, the National Archives of the United States, Great Britain, France, Netherlands, Belgium and other countries, have made available countless official documents and records, also confirming the claims by so-called "Jews" between 1917 and 1945, for exclusive authorship of communism, and for establishing the 1917 revolution in Russia, which unloosed communism upon an unsuspecting world. This data shatters the illusion of Christians before 1945 that the Soviet Union was a "Utopia" and "a workingman's paradise." Christians have learned a lot about communism since 1945. The communist cat got out of the bag after the end of World War II.

In the 1880's, Christians in eastern Europe were compelled to adopt measures in self-defense against the rising tide of communism. Communist aggression against Christianity was increasing rapidly under the leadership of so-called "Jews" as the "spearhead" of "revolutionary activity." Christians aimed to preserve the Christian political, economic and social systems in eastern Europe. The term "anti-Semitism" was coined by so-called "Jews" at that time. They aimed to silence Christians who opposed communism by smearing them as "anti-Semites." Christians had been brainwashed that the so-called "Jews" were survivors of the Semite "race," "religion" and "nation" which gave Christians their Semite Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ, and consequently it was un-Christian for Christians to dislike so-called "Jews."

"JEWS" NOT SEMITES

It is an undeniable fact that Jesus Christ was a "Semite" in the true sense of the term. It is equally an undeniable fact that the so-called "Jews" were not "Semites" in any sense of the word, by any stretch of the imagination, nor were their ancestors, back to the beginning of time "Semites" either, according to the Jewish Encyclopedia, Volume IV, pages 1 to 5, and every other authentic history of the so-called "Jews" under consideration here.

WHAT IS A "SEMITE?"

What is the correct meaning of that word?

Noah had three sons, Japheth the legendary ancestor of the European populations, Ham the legendary ancestor of the African population and Shem the legendary ancestor of the Middle East population. The name "Shem" became "Sem" in Greek and Latin when the legend of Noah was accepted by the Greeks and Romans. In 1781, Professor August Ludwig von Schlosser, a professor in Göttingen University in Germany, in writing about language-groups coined the word "Semitic" to describe the language-group spoken by the legendary descendants of "Sem", the nations in the Middle East, who spoke many languages with similar vocabularies and similar grammar structures. Prior to 1781, the term "Semitic" did not exist in any language of the world. The term "Semitic" did not infer or imply race, religion or nationality. The terms "Semite" and "Semitism" did not yet exist in any language of the world.

In 1899, Ludwig Bamberger was recognized as the world's leading authority on this subject, and was himself a so-called "Jew." In his "Memoirs," Ludwig Bamberger stated that in 1858 the term "Semitism" had "not yet been invented." In 1881 a leading authority on this subject published in the "Allgemeine Zeitung des Judenthums" that "anti-Semitism" was "a designation which recently came into use." In the same publication in the same year, another authority published the fact that "anti-Semitism" is a "quite recent" designation that was "hardly three years old." The first appearance of the word "anti-Semitism" in print appeared in 1880 in Wilhelm Marr's collection of articles on that subject.

A TERM WITHOUT MEANING

In the 1880's so-called "Jews" coined the term "anti-Semitism" from the term "Semite." In view of what the term "Semite" meant, it is not certain what the term "anti-Semitism" can mean. It must be apparent that it is meaningless, misunderstood and misused, if it was intended to mean a dislike for so-called "Jews." There was no necessity to coin a term to express a dislike for so-called "Jews" because such a word already existed in the dictionaries, and was then in use by so-called "Jews", including the Chief Rabbis of leading European countries.

JUDAEOPHOBIA CORRECT TERM

Prior to the 1880's the dictionary term for a person who disliked so-called "Jews" was "Judaephobe." The dictionary term for dislike of so-called "Jews" was "Judaephobia." The Chief Rabbi of England, Herman Adler in Electic Magazine XXXV in 1882 states on page 205. "The most rabid Judaephobe," and on page 196, "Recent phases of Judaephobia." Thousands of other quotations are available showing the use of "Judaephobe" and "Judaephobia" before "anti-Semitism" was coined. The so-called "Jews" evidently wished to discontinue the use of terms "Judaephobe" and "Judaephobia" because it drew unfavorable attention to the term "Judaeo", reflecting adversely upon so-called "Judaism." The use of the terms "Judaephobe" and "Judaephobia" put so-called "Judaism" on the defensive, whereas "anti-Semitism" put Christians on the defensive, as an enemy of Jesus Christ, the "Semite." But so-called "Jews" continue to use the term "Judaeo", as they do in the term "Judaeo-Christian", to which they attach more complimentary connotation as in their use of "Judaeo-Christian."

"JEWS" OF KHAZAR ORIGIN

The term "so-called 'Jews'" is used to describe the persons of Khazar origin who profess a religious belief called "Judaism" in modern times, and who conceived, created and cultivated communism. The term "Jew" was coined in the 18th century, as the English term for the Greek "Ioudaios" and the Latin "Iudaeus." The Greek "Ioudaios" and the Latin "Iudaeus" meant "Judean." Jesus Christ was mentioned either as a "Ioudaios" or as a "Iudaeus" in the original Greek and Latin manuscripts of the Bible from which the first English translation was made in the 14th century. When the first English translation of the Bible was made, the converted Khazars in eastern Europe were not known as "Jews." They elected in modern times to call themselves "Jews", based upon their allegation that if Jesus Christ was a "Jew" they were also "Jews", because they were allegedly "Semites."

CHRIST NOT A "JEW"

If Jesus Christ was a "Jew," there are no "Jews" in the world. If the descendants of the converted Khazars call themselves "Jews", Jesus Christ was not a "Jew." Inscribed on the Crucifix by Pilate was "Iesu Nazarenus, Rex Iudaeorum." Any first-year Latin student knows that "Iudaeorum" can only mean "of the Judeans," the Genitive Plural of the Nominative Single "Iudaeus," meaning "Judean" in Latin. Jesus Christ, in English translations of the Bible, is a "Jew" only in the sense He was a "Judean." The converted Khazars were not "Judeans," and neither they nor their descendants can truthfully be called "Jews." The Middle East province of the Roman Empire called "Judea" ceased to exist after the fall of the Roman Empire. There are only "so-called 'Jews'" in the world today, there are no "Jews" in the world in the sense Jesus Christ is called a "Jew."

STOP USE OF FALSE TERM

Christians must do everything in their power to stop the use of the term "anti-Semitism." Christians must stop the use of the term "anti-Semitism" or permit the creeping-conquest of Christianity to take its toll. Christians can soon stop the use of the term "anti-Semitism." Christians should "Boo" speakers who use the term "anti-Semitism" in their presence. If this were done, they will soon stop using it. Christians should make no exceptions to that rule. Christians should write letters to newspapers, magazines, radio and television networks and local stations, motion-picture producers, their Congressmen and Senators, their other elected officials and religious publications. Protest against the use of the term "anti-Semitism." Protest you are not an ignoramus. Protest against their insult to your intelligence.

If Christians had the courage to use methods like those used by the Anti-Defamation League of the B'nai B'rith, the terms "anti-Semitism," "anti-Semitic" and "anti-Semite" would soon never be seen or heard again. If Christians want to see Christianity go down the drain, just do nothing to stop so-called "Jews" from using the terms "anti-Semitism", "anti-Semitic" and "anti-Semite." Christianity is worth saving from communism. Start the "Boo" campaign in your neighborhood today, and write letters whenever you see these terms in print. It is up to Christians to save Christianity. The so-called "Jews" will not do it for Christians, hardly!

Some people become excited when accused of being "anti-semitic," however ridiculous to those of us who know that all followers of Christ are considered "anti-semitic" by the anti-Christ forces.

Robert Donner, prominent Zionist writer, in the REPUBLIC OF ISRAEL, page 10, states:

"To Christians of all denominations Jesus is the symbol of all that is pure, sacred, and lovely. To Jews from the fourth century on, Jesus became the symbol of anti-semitism, of libel, of cruelty, of violent death."
